

December 12, 1734.

PROPOSALS

For Printing by SUBSCRIPTION,

THE

HISTORY

OF

ENGLAND,

FROM THE

Coronation of King WILLIAM and Queen MARY to the Eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty King GEORGE II.

---

By J. TEMPLEMAN, Esq;

---

HISTORY being, in general, the most useful, as well as delightful Branch of Knowledge; 'twill be absolutely unnecessary to expatiate on a Truth so well known and acknowledged. 'Tis, therefore, to be hop'd, every-body will be pleas'd with this Part of the History of ENGLAND, as it is here propos'd; especially those, who are more particularly desirous to have Mr. RAPIN's History brought down to the present Time, in which his Method, Faithfulness, Impartiality, Freedom and Plainness, will, as far as possible, be imitated.

PRO-

PROPOSALS.

I. THAT the Work shall be printed in One Volume in Folio, on a fine Paper and on the same Letter with these Proposals.

II. That each Subscriber shall have Six Sheets stitch'd up in Blue Paper, delivered every Week, at any Place he shall appoint, at the Rate of Eight-Pence.

III. That the Work will be put into the Press with all possible Expedition, and compleated in nine Months after the Publication of the first Number.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are taken in by E. RIDER, Printer, in Blackmore-street; where all manner of Printing Work is done at reasonable Rates.

Advertisements.

ALL Sorts of Mosaick Work upon Glass, as Cyphers, Coats of Arms, Frames for all Sorts of Looking-Glasses, Altar-Pieces and Religious Pictures to take abroad, Histories on Snuff-Boxes or Pictures to hang in Rooms, Engraved in Gold or Silver. Likewise all Sorts of Drawing in History, Ornament and Architecture; Cuts invented for Books the Subject being given. All Gentlemen or others may have their Original Paintings copied in Indian Ink or Black Lead in the most beautiful Manner. Likewise their Faces taken to the greatest Likeness or Persons taught to Draw. By Thomas Worlidge

Worlidge Successor to the late Mr. Grimaldi and Scholar to the late famous F. Boitard. He will attend any Person in an Hour at any time of the Day, after Notice left at Mr. Maidwell's, Purveyor of Glass and China Ware to his Majesty, at the King's Arms opposite Norfolk-street in the Strand.

THIS is to give Notice, that David Gardiner, Bookseller, in New Turnstile, High-Holborn, gives ready Money for any Library or Parcel of Books; sells all Sorts of Books and Stationary Ware at reasonable Rates, and binds all kinds of Books, Gilds and Letters Gentlemen's Studies in the best Manner and at the lowest Prices.

N. B. The Pocket Companion for Free-Masons is to be had bound or stitch'd at the aforesaid Place.

ALL Machines and Instruments respecting either Water-Works, the Operations in Surgery, or the Conclusions in Experimental Philosophy, made according to the latest Improvements, by Stephen Davenport adjoining to the White Hart Inn in High-Holborn.

SHELF MARK
G.A. Beds. 8* 15

The Eighteenth Century

Author:

Title: Publications by Darton and Harvey, 55, Gracechurch-Street, London. This day is published, price sixpence, No. I. of Walker's geography and gazetteer. ...

Imprint: [London, 1798].

Collation: [4]p.; 8*

Notes: Drop-head title. - Includes announcements for: Walker's 'Elements of geography, ...'; 'No. XIX. ... the fourth fasciculus of A cabinet of quadrupeds ...'; Wadstrom's 'An essay on colonization, ...' and Stephen Jones' 'Sheridan improved'.

RCN: t200699

OUT TO RP:

(RP)

IN TO BL:

(BL)

REJECTED:

RP Reel No: 6381

RP Reel Location No: 24

RP ID No: 03G005361-002

☐ Tight Bindings

☐ Fine Bindings

☐ Fragile Book

☐ BL Archival Film

☐ RP Filming

☐ BL Filming

☐ Via Bind to RP

☐ Via Bind to BL

FILMING COPY

RESEARCH PUBLICATION
INTER NATIONAL